Can't sign the application at a Heart of Louisiana branch location?

If you cannot open your membership in person and must return the application by mail, please have your signature notarized. Please include a photocopy of a valid (non-expired) government issued photo I.D. such as a driver's license, state I.D. card, passport, or military I.D. If you have a sticker on the back of your driver's license extending the expiration date on the front, please make a copy of that as well.
